DEDICATION

Dedication

We, the class of 1969, are dedicating our yearbook to you, Mrs. Clark. We would like to thank you for keeping that big smile when we came to you with our problems. Your counseling and understanding has guided us through the year. Since words cannot express the way we feel, we shall close by saying Thank you.

Sincerely,

The Class of 1969

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, the students, would like to express our many thanks to Mrs. Guy, Mrs. Zarnow, Mrs. Clark, Eva Lee, Mrs. Martin, and Miss Nottingham.

You all have made this year possible for us.

Mrs. Guy, Mrs. Zarnow, and Mrs. Clark, we'll always appreciate the patience and instruction you have shown to us throughout the year. Mrs. Guy, we also wish you the best of luck with the next year's class. Mrs. Zarnow, we appreciate your help with the yearbook and on the floor.

Eva Lee, this year would have never been the same without you. You have a heart of gold. We'll never forget the little talks and jokes with you.

Mrs. Martin and Miss Nottingham, we know it is hard to handle us at times, but we think you did a real good job. We hope you enjoyed this year. Good luck next year. We hope next year's class is better.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Mr. Larouere,

In deepest appreciation for all the help you have extended to us this year, we, the students, dedicate this page of our yearbook to you.

You volunteered your services for our projects and offered your advice.

We'll never forget the many things that you have done for us. Once again, thank you.

CHRISTMAS

Our Christmas Bazaar, which took place on Saturday, December 7, 1968, was a project to raise funds for the L. P. N. Convention in Charlottesville. The Christmas spirit was really displayed as everyone worked together to make this bazaar possible.

We, the students, had the privilege of entertaining at the R. N. 's Christmas party which turned out to be a lot of fun. The R. N. 's had as much fun watching us, as we did putting on the show. Besides the family skit, we sang "Let There Be Peace."

CAPPING

I pledge myself to the ideals of and purposes of practical nursing; to render the best possible service; to the humanitarian aims of the hospital of which I may be a part; to assist the physician and the professional nurse at the bedside of the acutely ill; to strengthen the hands of a mother in the care of her newborn child and to help keep the family in tact, when its mainstay and support is threatened. In so dedicating myself, I shall reach a worthy goal in my life, and meet the sacred responsibility entrusted to me by my fellowman.

BINGO

April found us gathering prizes, baking, and preparing for our Bingo Party. This party turned out to be really successful. It was fun not only for the guests, but for the students too.

SALE

With the completion of the chicken salad sale, we reached our goal of receiving enough money to attend the LPN Convention.

I'm sure no one will ever forget that week. If we weren't cutting chicken, it was celery, and if it was not celery, it was each other. All in all, it was fun.

CONVENTION

All the work that went into raising money for the LPN Convention was worth it.

It is a wonder we had time for anything between moving in and out of the hotel and motel and eating but we did.

We'll never forget the lecture on drugs that we thought came form Mrs. Clark's class notes and the witty lecture at the banquet.

A lot of the fun was congregating in the rooms and joking around at night and touring we did on the way back.

A good time was had by everyone.

This is a Swimming Pool!

I'm not sleeping with her!

FRED!

I never did that when I was young.

Here's another swimming pool.

No, I will not drive again.
